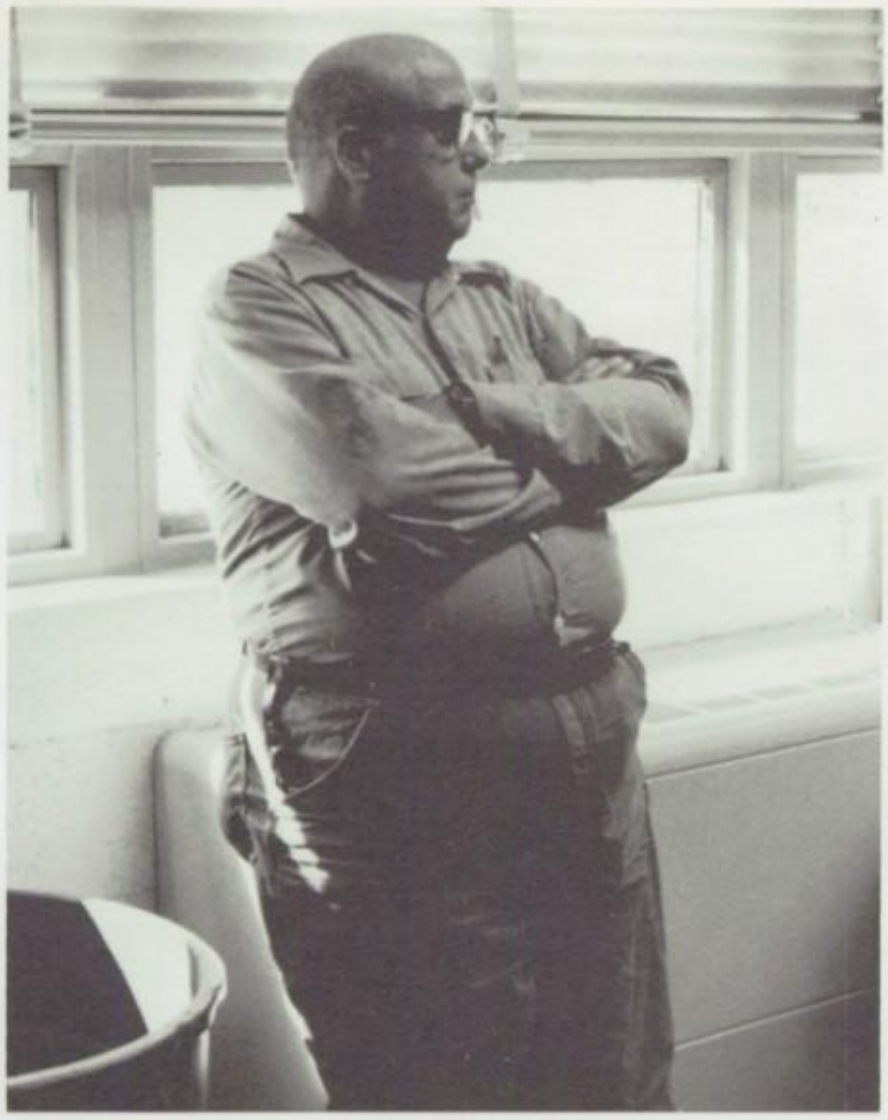
Dedication

Although it's hard to choose one person among the many deserving the dedication of a yearbook, the 1978 Fawn Staff has chosen one such individual in particular.

Serving Kennard-Dale since its beginning in 1952, this lady has worked in the Kennard-Dale cafeteria for 26 years, having been head cook for the last ten years. Her job of providing the student body and faculty with a wide variety of highly nutritional and well-planned meals is not as easy as one may think. Besides her duties as head cook, she has helped our class with many projects — our seventh and eighth grade dance, sandwich sales, banquets, and the junior-senior prom.

Off school grounds, she is an active member of the Norrisville Methodist Church. Square dancing and caring for flowers are favorite pastimes. Much of her time is spent doing housework and babysitting her young grandson.

This lady is usually found behind the scenes, yet she has directly influenced each of us here at Kennard-Dale. For this reason, the 1978 Fawn Staff is proud to dedicate our yearbook to Mrs. Hazel Plummer.



MILK

Life can be short or sometimes long;

You can be right, or sometimes wrong; it's all what you make it.

Love can be rough or sometimes smooth;

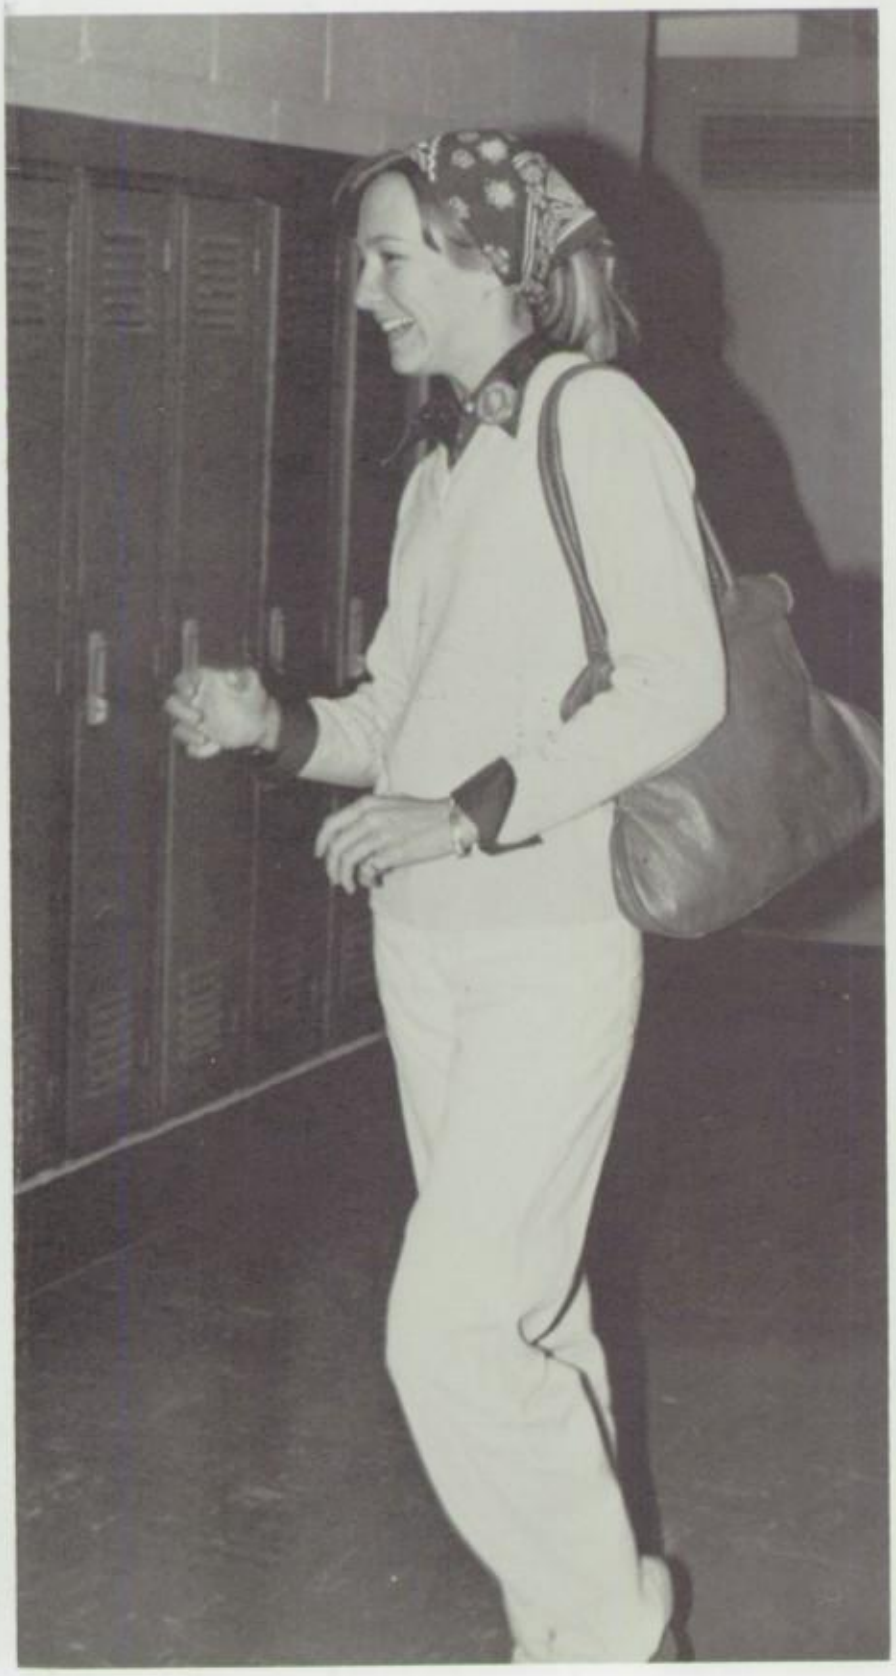
Life can be calm or on the move. It's all what you make it.



You can be all you want to be;

You can be tall and still be free. It's all what you make it.

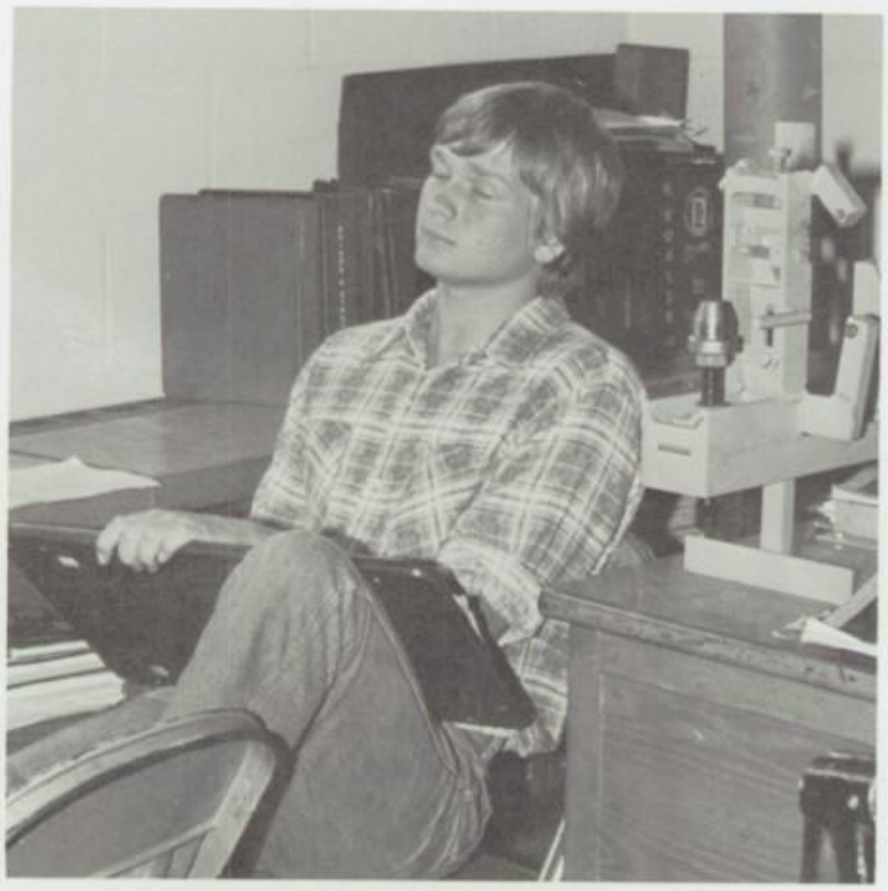
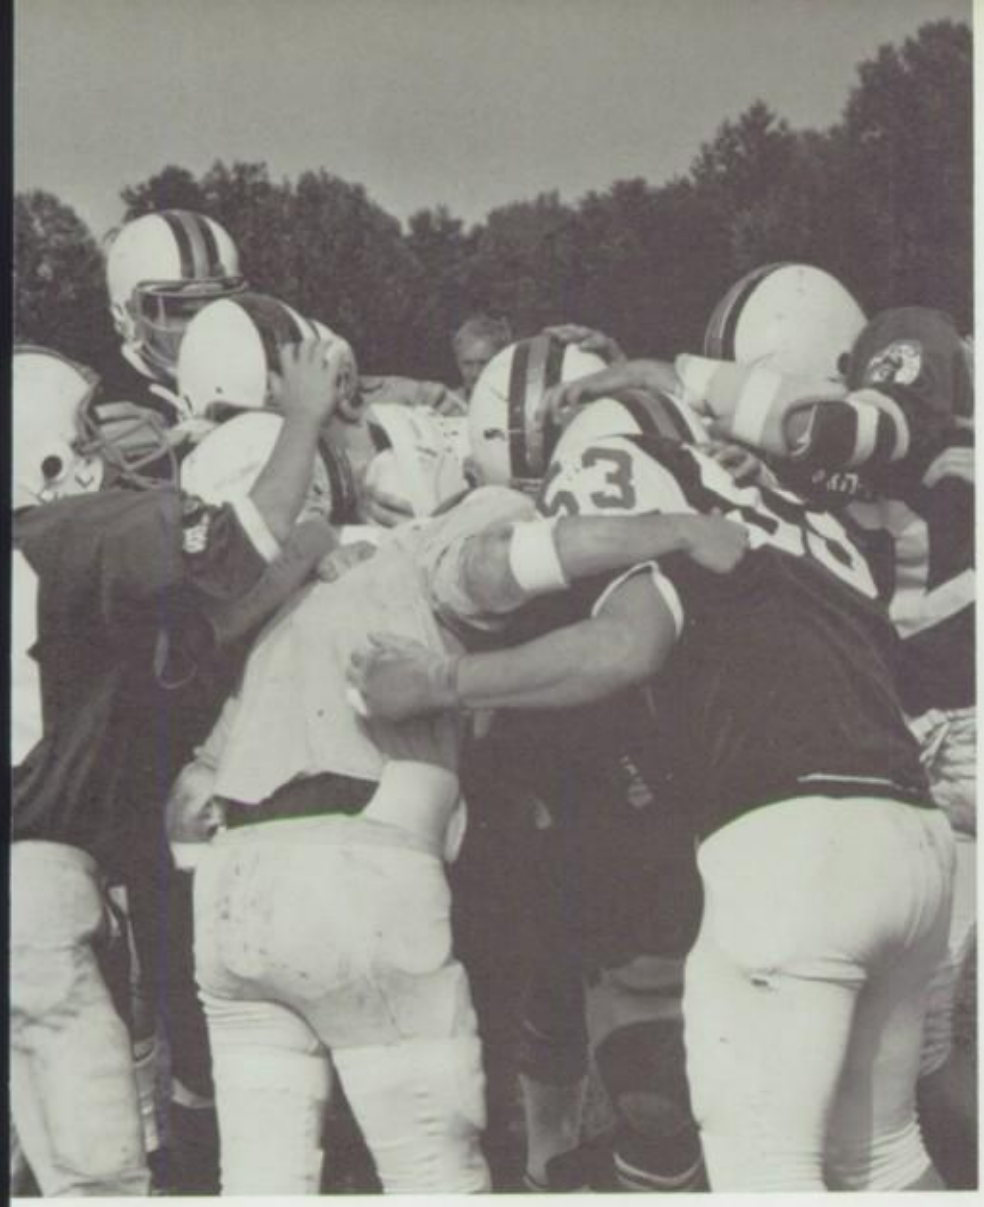
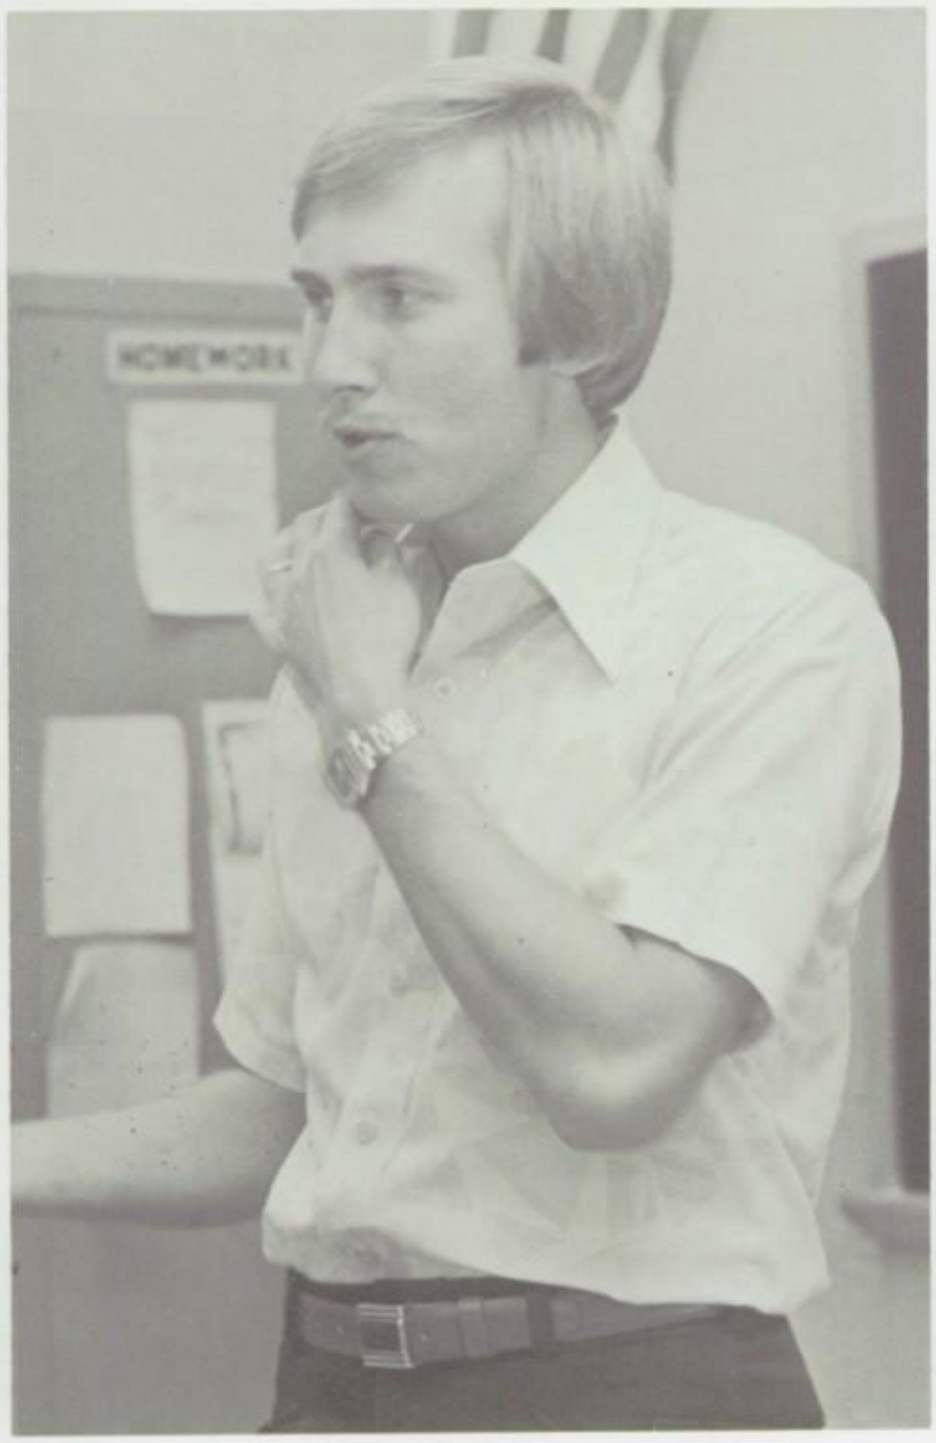
Life is what you make it;



If you don't know where you're going, you'll probably end up somewhere else



Life is what you are.



Life is what you make it.

Everyone's a star!

DIRECTORS

The administrators and school-board have done an outstanding job as directors of the student body. In charge of the overall administration of the school district is Dr. Luther B. Sowers, who gives considerable amount of his time to the improvement of our schools. Mr. Nicholos Corbo and Mr. Charles Reid, through their constant care and concern, have earned the respect of the student body. Without these people, many worthwhile projects couldn't have been completed at Kennard-Dale.

Class History

Looking back on the years we spent in Kennard-Dale brings back many happy memories for the class of 1978. Our first important event was in seventh grade when we went on our first class trip to Huntsdale Fish Hatchery above Yellow Breeches Creek.

Eighth grade was the beginning of more activities to come. We had our first dance inviting the underclassmen to join us. Sports activities were provided in the gym while music was the entertainment in the cafeteria.

Ninth grade brought on a new look for the journey ahead. We chose our courses after timely discussions with our parents to prepare us for our future. We also had our first experience in building a float, which took the 3rd prize of $10.00.

As tenth graders we ordered the traditional class pins. We sponsored a stereo raffle at the Frosty Carnival and had a bake sale to raise money for our senior year.

One of the main events in our junior year was the Jr. and Sr. Prom entitled "Dream Weaver." We presented the play "Tom Jones" and had a very successful sub sale to raise money. We also bought our class rings.

Many decisions had to be made in our senior year. The class faced many conflicts such as selecting the colors for caps and gowns, which were finally chosen as midnight blue and baby blue. A candy project and the Sr. Class play entitled "Headin' For a Weddin' " were used to raise money for our class trip.

Although we have reached our senior year at Kennard-Dale, many happy memories will remain in our hearts forever. We will cherish these memories and the people who have made them possible.

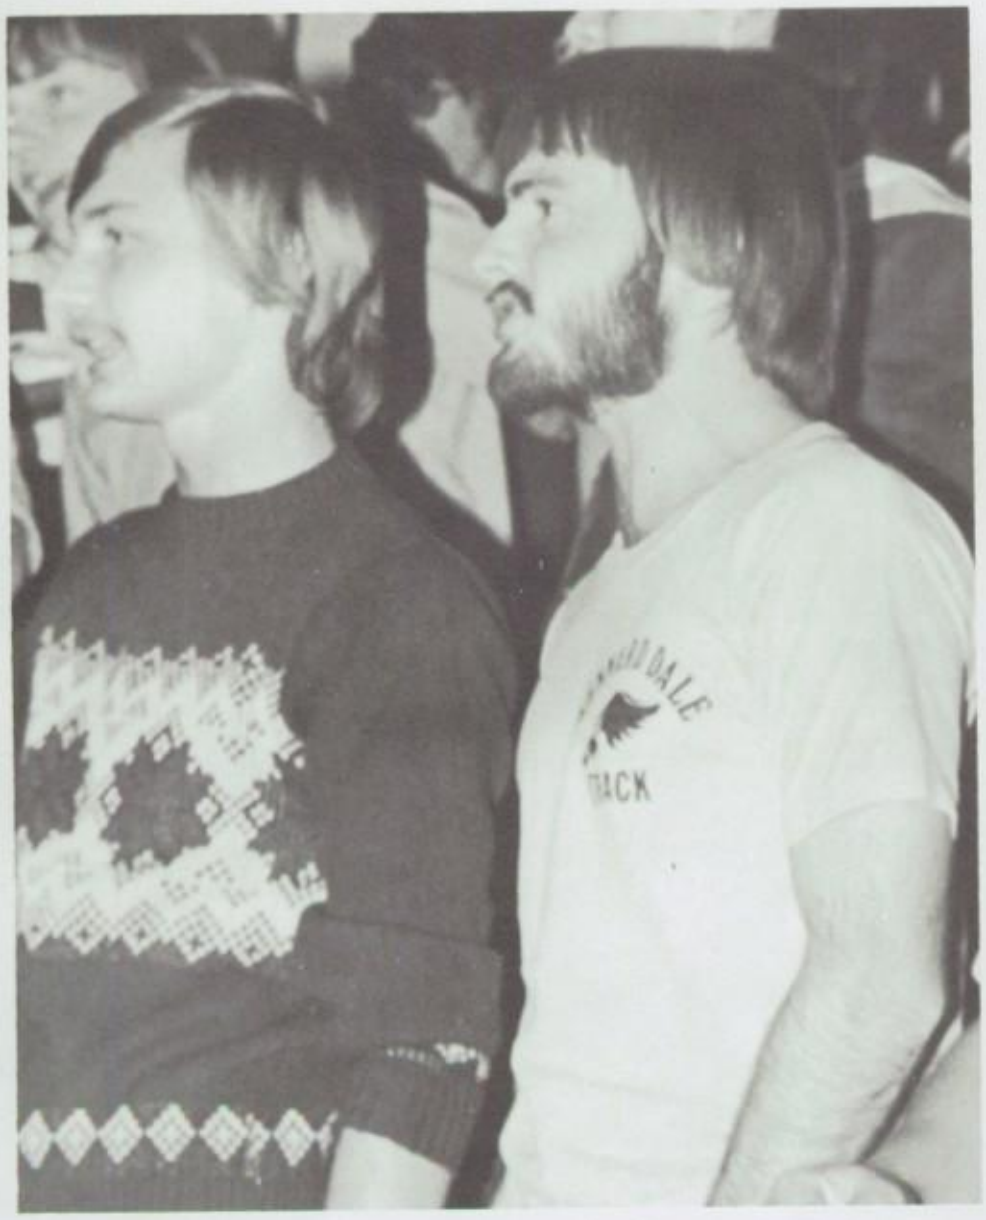
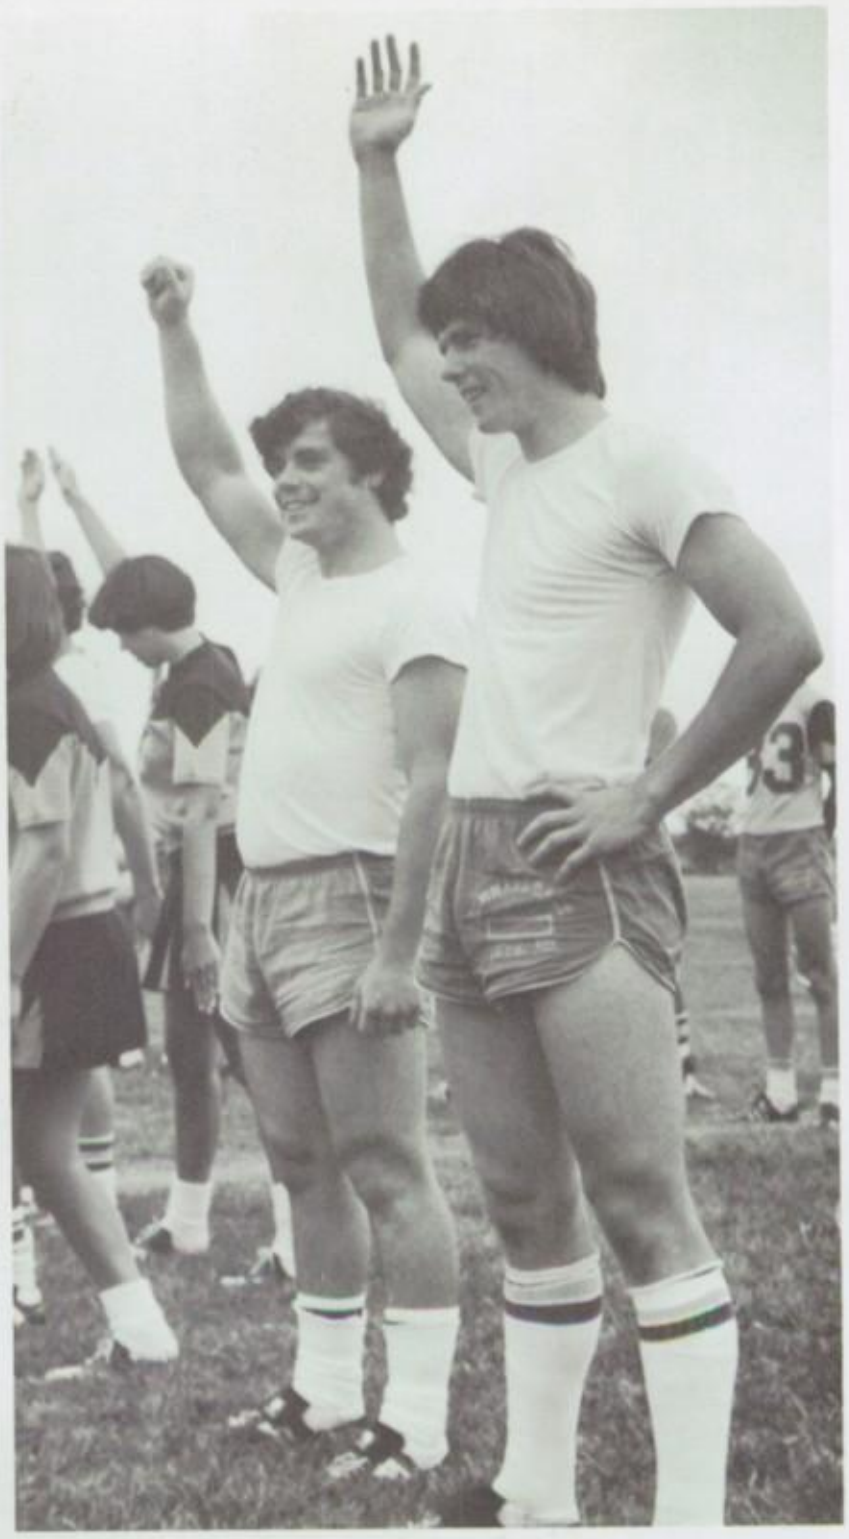
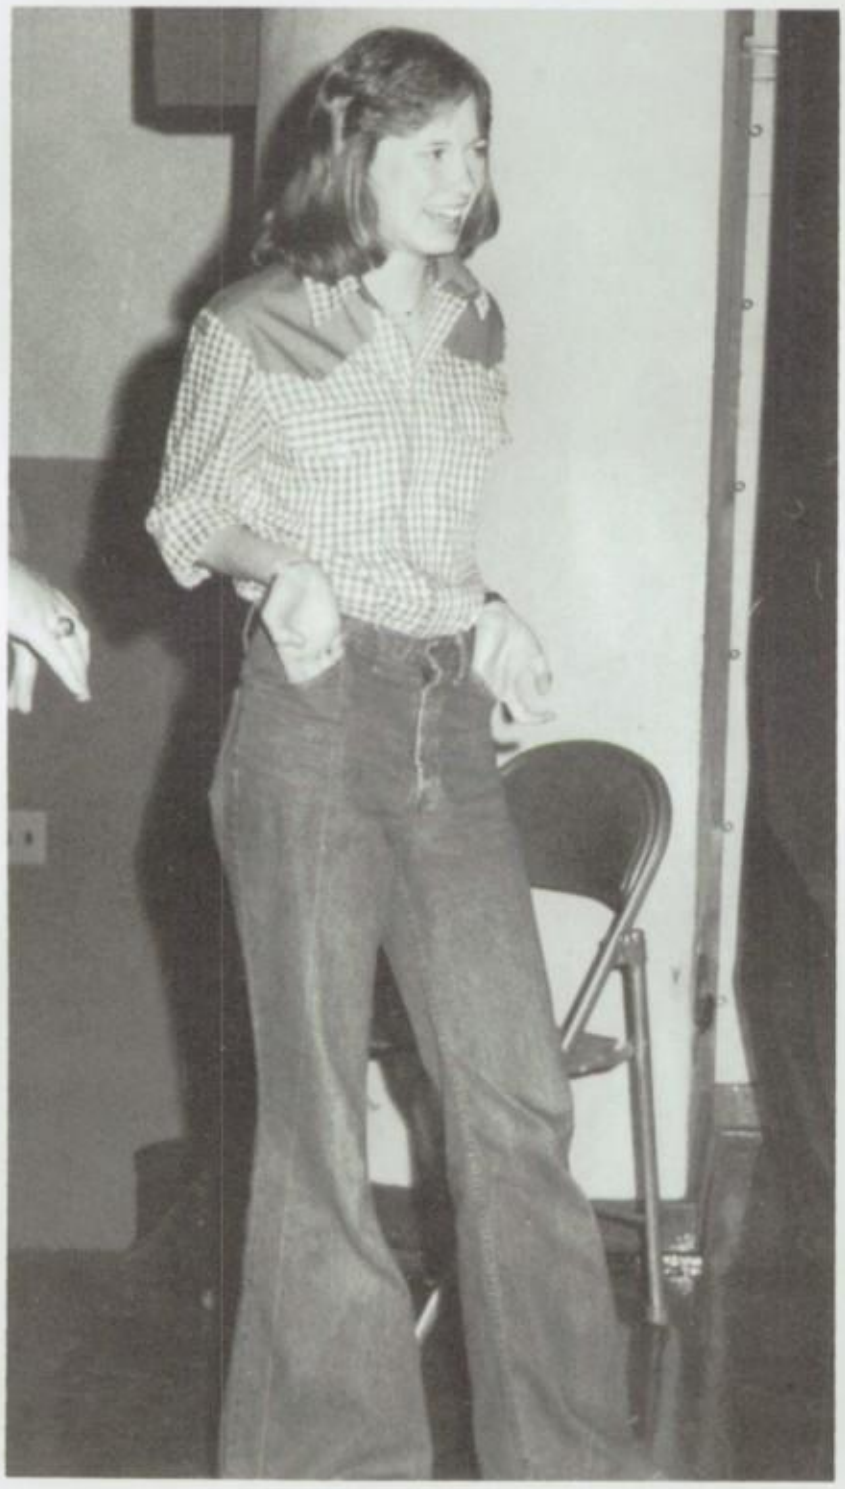
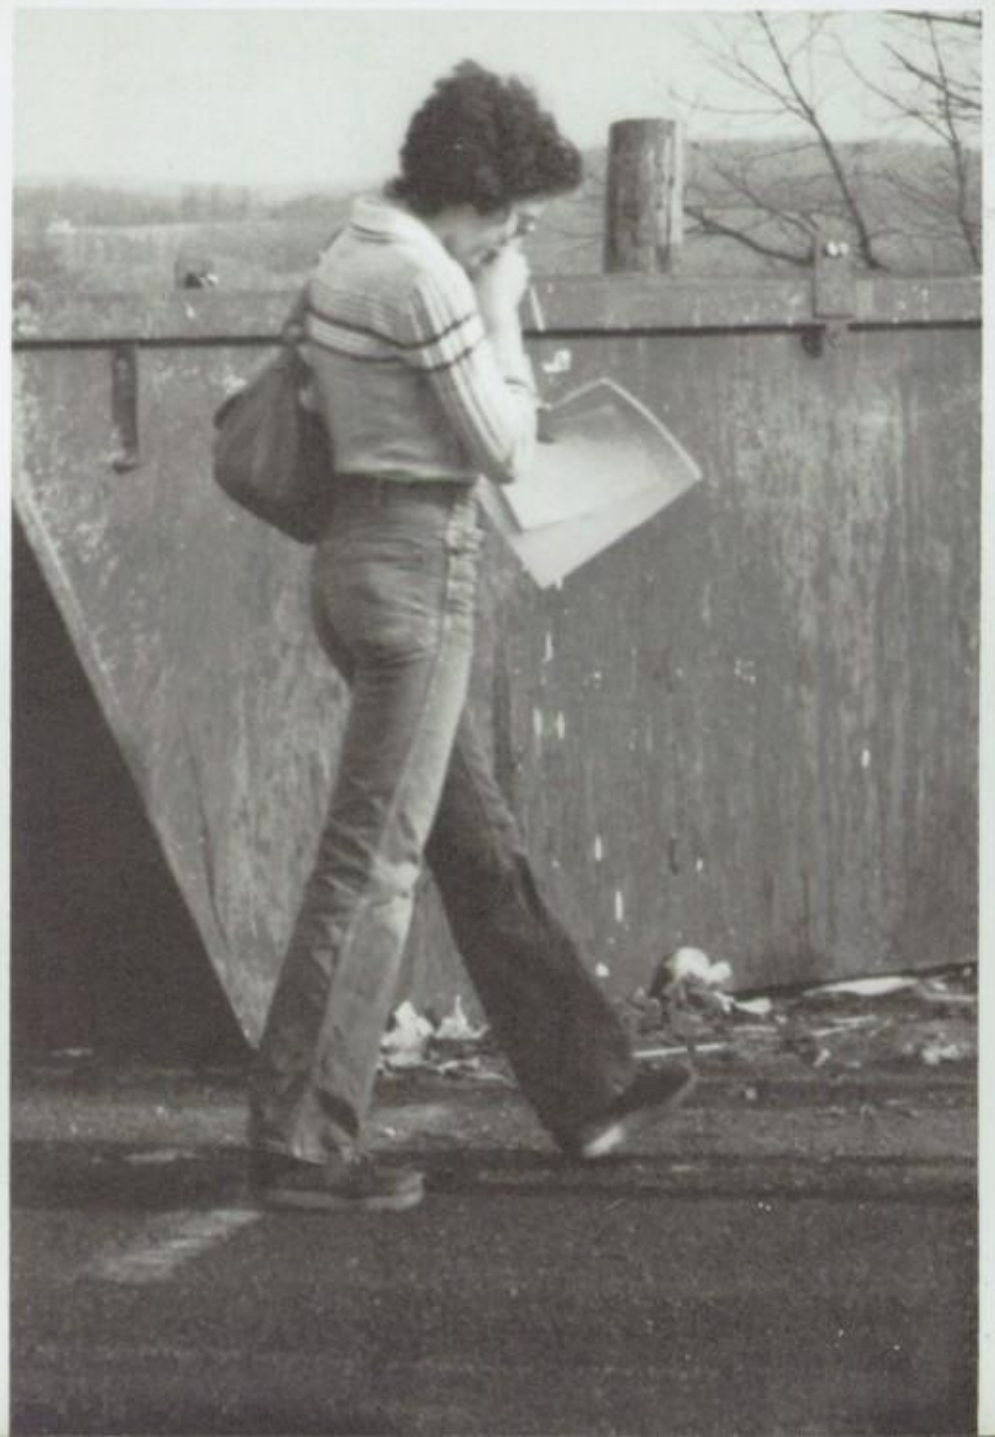
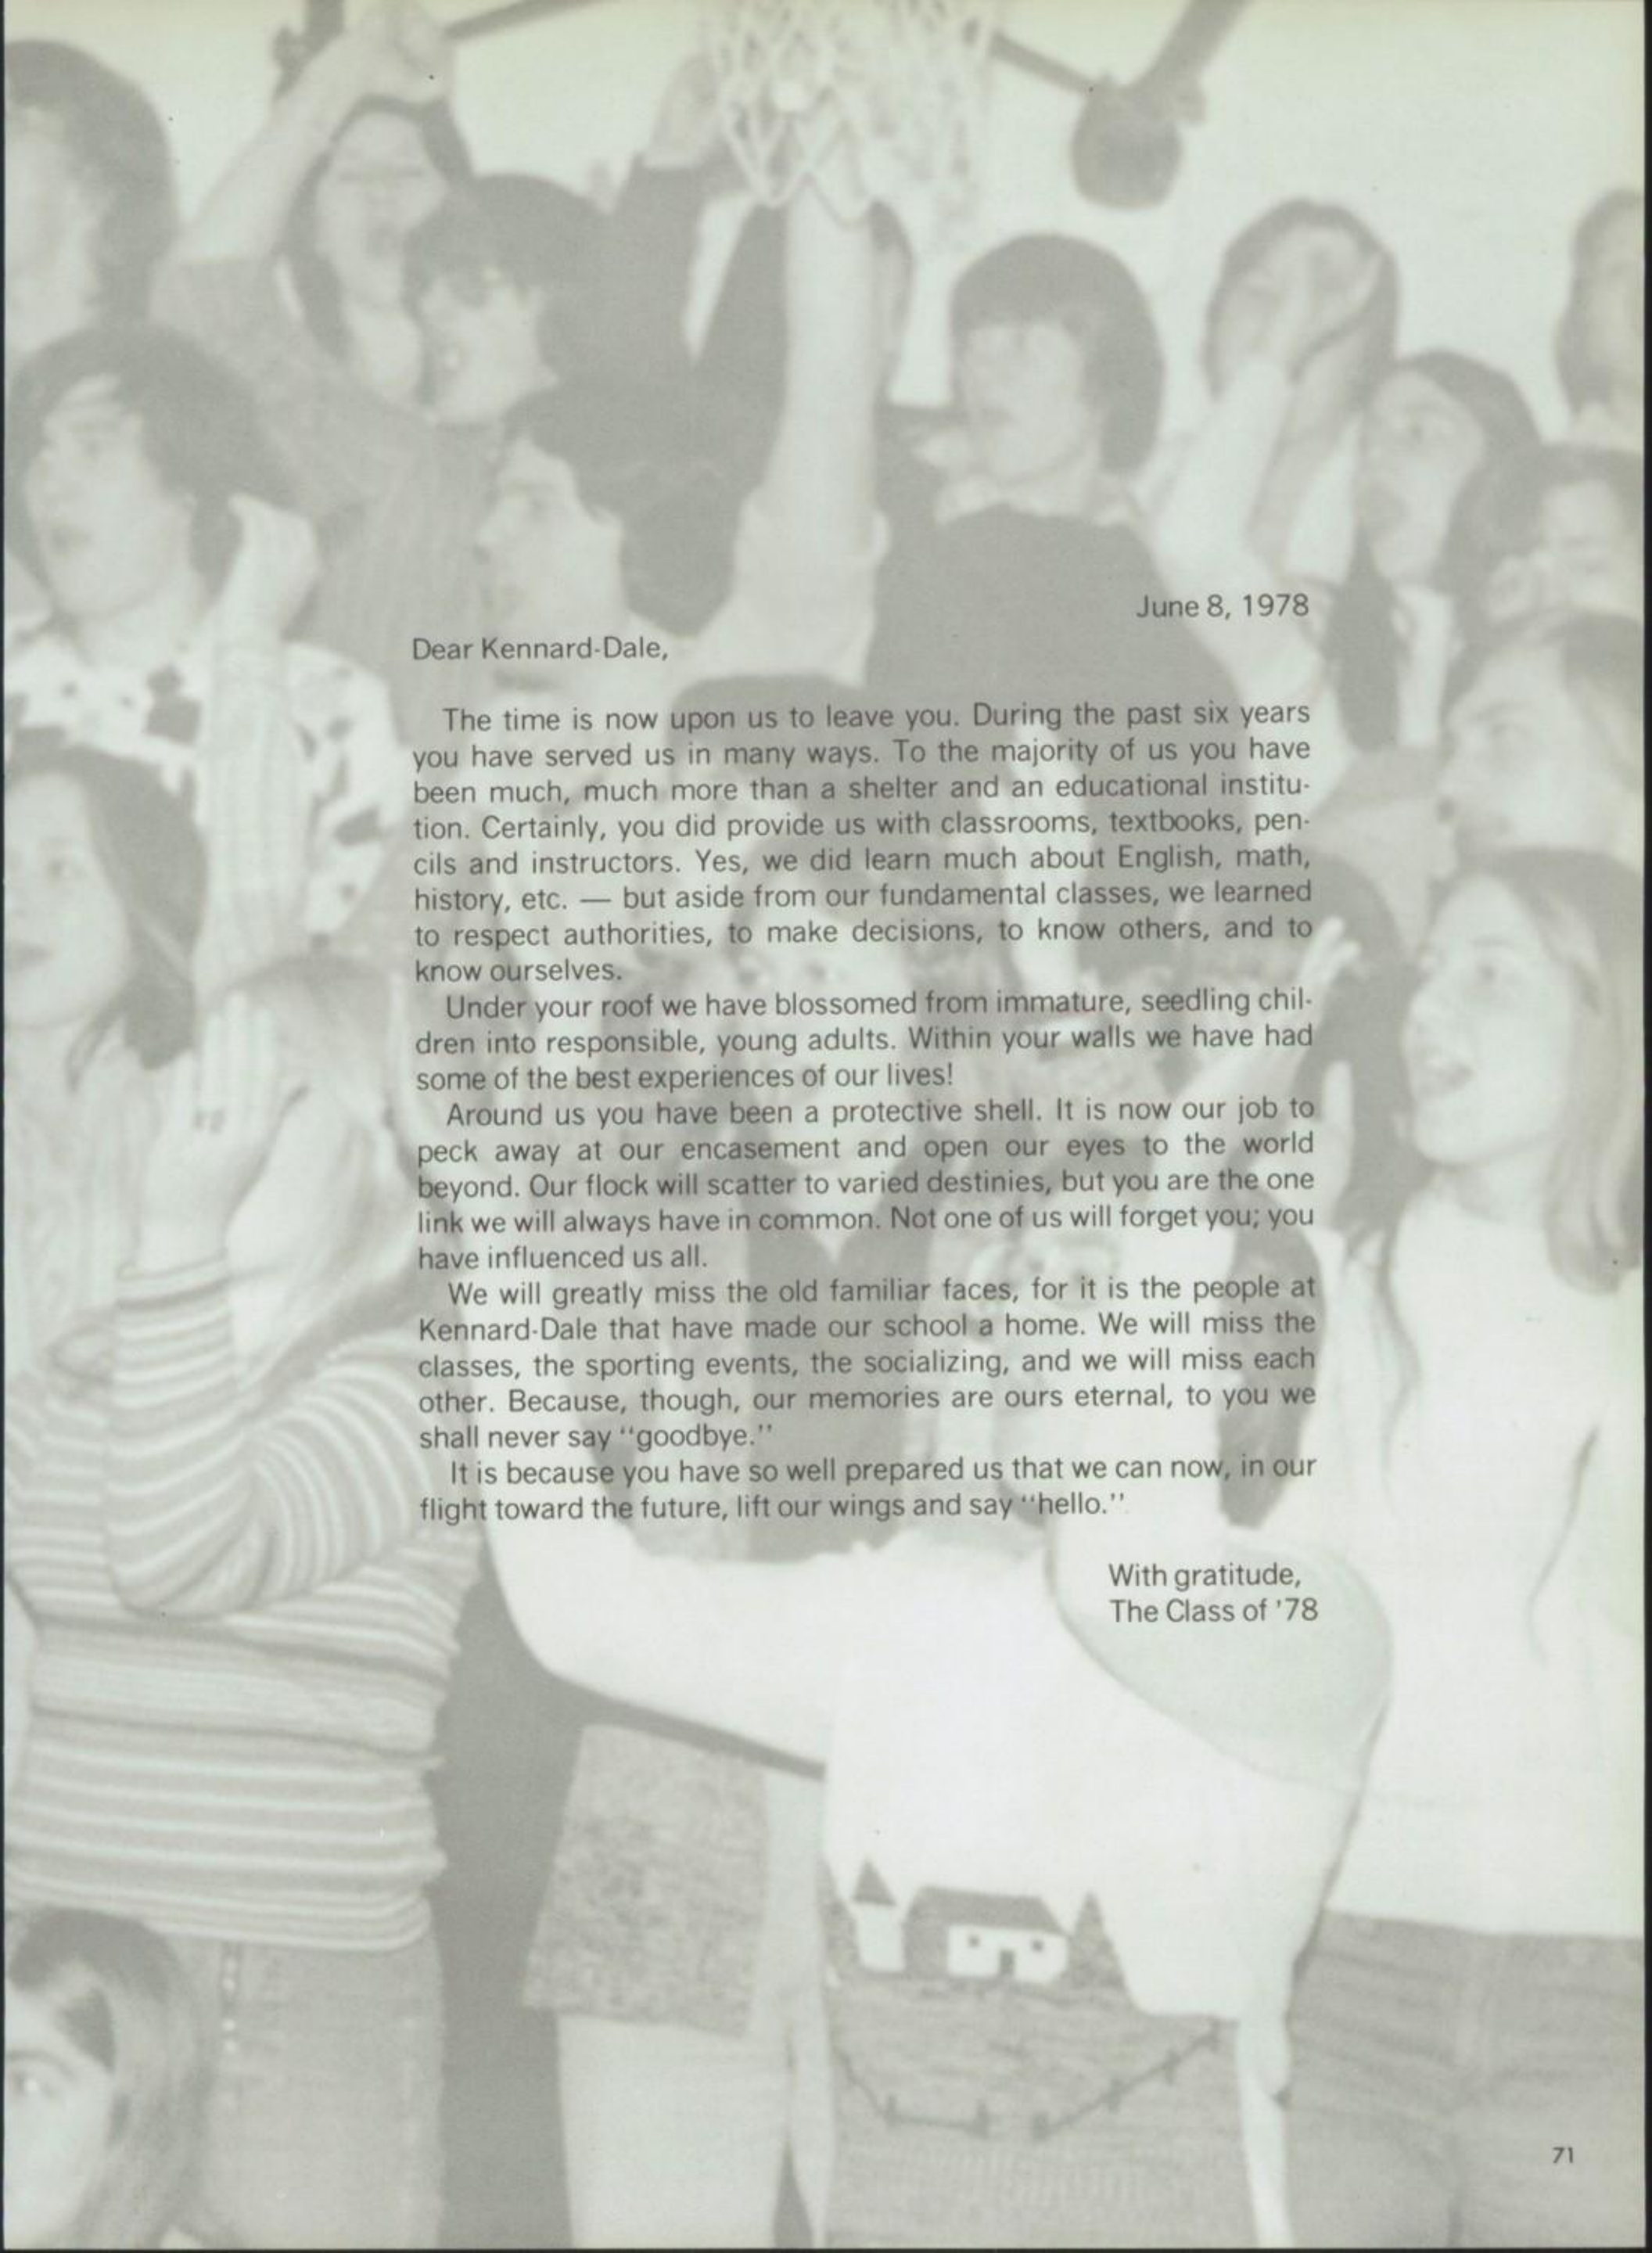
Stars of '78











June 8, 1978

Dear Kennard-Dale,

The time is now upon us to leave you. During the past six years you have served us in many ways. To the majority of us you have been much, much more than a shelter and an educational institution. Certainly, you did provide us with classrooms, textbooks, pencils and instructors. Yes, we did learn much about English, math, history, etc. — but aside from our fundamental classes, we learned to respect authorities, to make decisions, to know others, and to know ourselves.

Under your roof we have blossomed from immature, seedling children into responsible, young adults. Within your walls we have had some of the best experiences of our lives!

Around us you have been a protective shell. It is now our job to peck away at our encasement and open our eyes to the world beyond. Our flock will scatter to varied destinies, but you are the one link we will always have in common. Not one of us will forget you; you have influenced us all.

We will greatly miss the old familiar faces, for it is the people at Kennard-Dale that have made our school a home. We will miss the classes, the sporting events, the socializing, and we will miss each other. Because, though, our memories are ours eternal, to you we shall never say "goodbye."

It is because you have so well prepared us that we can now, in our flight toward the future, lift our wings and say "hello."

With gratitude,
The Class of '78

The Twenty-fifth Annual Commencement Exercises were held on June 7, 1977 in the Southeastern Middle School Gymnasium. A capacity crowd of relatives and friends watched the class of 1977 graduate.

Musical selections were performed by the Kennard-Dale Chorus and the Band. Following an invocation by Rev. John Houdeshel, Chris Von Lange, Senior Class president, welcomed those present. Speakers on the theme "Changing Times" were: Historian, Beth Maddox; Salutatorian, Susan Workman; and Valedictorian, Eydie Waldron.

Graduation is a time of mixed emotions for both seniors and underclassmen.

The class of 78's first attempt at acting proved very successful. Under the inspirational direction of Mr. Ben Emenheiser and the supportive efforts of Mrs. Rita Sebring and stage crew, the comedy Tom Jones was presented on April 15, 1977.

The play, originally scheduled for March 14, 1977, was postponed due to the state energy conservation order. No practices could be held at Kennard-Dale until April, therefore the early rehearsals were rotated among various community churches. Although transportation inconveniences resulted, the cast enjoyed themselves tremendously.

To the cast, a play is remembered long after the audience forgets. Memories of the missing muff, the broken sword, and the special guest star Harry will be long remembered.

Garrett's "Headin' for a Weddin' "

On November 18 and 19, 1977, Mr. David Garrett made his debut as Kennard-Dale's senior class play director. Mr. Garrett's exceptional intuition and calm, yet stimulating, direction proved beneficial with the success of the three act farce "Headin' for a Weddin'."

Fourteen senior girls and one senior boy transformed from their usual, sophisticated selves to crude hillbillies. As if the perfecting of the southern accents wasn't enough, four females found themselves playing male roles.

Society Honors Mr. Hunt

Carroll H. Hunt was surprised with the national Honor Society Hall of Fame Award at the society's induction ceremonies on December 14, 1977. Mr. Hunt retired from K.D. in 1977, following a long career as teacher and yearbook advisor.

Each year, a service project is chosen by the National Honor Society, During 1977-78, several members of the club tutored students and visited shut-ins.

F.F.A. Succeeds

Southeastern School District is known as a farming community. Therefore, unlike many schools in the county, Kennard-Dale supports a large, active, and successful F.F.A. Due to the large membership, the group is divided into Junior and Senior Organizations.

The two groups combine their efforts in various projects throughout the year. During 1977-78, F.F.A. activities included fruit, seed, and flower bulb sales; a petting zoo; and Wildlife Displays.

F.F.A. co-sponsored the Christmas Dance this year with F.B.L.A. An assembly featuring a Parliamentary Procedures demonstration, a Milk Test, and a milking contest was presented by the group last spring.

Chapter Wins Honors

The Kennard-Dale FFA monopolized many competitions during the 1977-78 school year.

The Parliamentary Procedures Team won first place in the county, area, and regional competitions and placed sixth in the State Competition over the summer.

Many members of the FFA won awards throughout the year. Numerous honors were earned at the 1977 York Fair, the annual FFA week, the Farm Show, and countless other events throughout the year.

Of sixteen Keystone Farmer Degrees awarded in York County in 1977, seven were awarded to Kennard-Dale Future Farmers. The winners were: Leslie Hare, Dean Miller, Bob Stewart, Rick Hushon, Jeff Griffith, Paul Knight, and Steve Krick.

Foreign Affairs

"If I was offered the opportunity to do it again, I'd jump at the chance," says Anna Lynn Parlett, Kennard-Dale's first exchange student. My summer in Iceland was not a vacation. It was an experience in life, and like life here in the U.S., there were good times, and bad times. Often, I was so homesick for friends, family, and Stewartstown, that I didn't think I'd last the whole ten weeks. But now that I am back, when I see blond hair and blue eyes, or hear an "ABBA" song, or get mail postmarked "Rekjauik," I get terribly homesick for my other home.

Iceland was full of surprises. While there, I saw no snow, no eskimos, and no polar bears. Everything was unexpected, from the language, to the food, to the fifteen pounds I gained. In one summer, when an only child gains two more parents, five brothers and sisters, and four nieces and nephews she certainly can't complain. My last family was the best part of my AFS summer. The feeling inside that I have for them cannot be put into words."

Anna Lynn's trip was made possible through the combined efforts of the K.D. Chapter and the Adult Chapter of American Field Service. These two groups had the responsibility of raising money to pay for both in-coming and out-going student.

The student group sold light bulbs and sold pretzels at home basketball games. The adults headed ham and cheese sandwich sales and conducted the business dealings of the two chapters.

An A.F.S. Weekend was held in the spring for country AFS presidents, exchange students, and hosts.

The Norwegian Invasion

The people in Norway are pretty much the same as the people in U.S., except it is not so much different of rich and poor. We save our natural resources by trying not to pollute.

Jeans is the standard clothing and we dress up seldom in school. Special occasions we wear our national dress.

We go out in groups to entertain ourselves. We can go to discoteques, movies, theatres, operas, clubs, churchs or we stay together at each other's homes where we make food and talk together.

I really like Kennard-Dale because of all the activities and that the classes is not too hard. Also that we get lunch at school. Another good thing of the American school is that it has more often tests and quizzes. In Norway we have very big ones not so often and they count almost your whole grade. And they are also much harder than the ones you take here.

I think it is a great opportunity and experience to be an exchange student and I enjoy it a whole lot. I will always remember this year and I will look back at it as something great.

German Club Carols

Christmas caroling highlighted the activities of the German Club in 1977-78. Residents of the York Lutheran Home and of Rest Haven enjoyed the German carols.

F.B.L.A. Boosts Christmas Spirit

FBLA co-sponsored the K.D. 1977 Christmas Dance. Profits made from the club's school store and school jacket sales earned money for the dance, a joint effort with the FFA.

Additional profit went toward a competition at Shippensburg. Club members who placed at Shippensburg spent a weekend at Host Farms with other area winners. In the spring of 1977, Sue Mullins won second place in Secretarial Procedures at Shippensburg and travelled to Host Farms.

Service Benefits Kennard-Dale

K.D. Letter Service is probably the most active group within the school. The organization offers secretarial services for teachers and various school clubs.

Each year, Mrs. Marian McElwain, the adviser, compiles a list of K.D. Letter Service members. Each girl is assigned to a teacher through conferences with teachers and students.

The members abandoned their busy schedules to attend the Organ Ridge Dinner Club in May.

Members of the FHA adorned in Halloween costumes, visited Pleasant Acres in York during the fall of 1977. The group also designed book markers for the residents.

Council Benefits All

Student Council was established as a link between the administration and students of Kennard-Dale. Each year, students interested in joining the council obtain petitions. An election is held and at the most five representatives are chosen from each class. Presidents of each class and club may also attend meetings.

Laughs and thrills abounded as students and teachers watched the Student Council's feature Murder By Death. The movie was presented at one of the monthly assemblies sponsored by the council in 1977-78.

The entire 1977 Homecoming weekend, including parade, bonfire, and dance, was organized under the direction of advisor Mr. Dale Dinsmore. The Frosty Carnival took place unhindered by winter as it had been last year. The carnival earned money for the various school organizations and provided food, buys, and entertainment for the community.

Media Services Aides District

The Audio Visual Service and Library Club are jointly called Media Service Club. Each group functions independently, however.

A.-V. Service, led by Mr. Theodore Gallagher, furnishes the entire school district with film strips, movies, video tapes, and records.

Mrs. Jodonna Wagner and her aides offer many services to the Kennard-Dale community including frequent bake sales.

Members of both organizations devote many hours of free time to the Media Service cause.

Write On, Ram's Tale

The Ram's Tale blossomed into a thriving informative newspaper during the 1977-78 school year. Mrs. Jane Travis coached the inexperienced staff members as they learned the working of a publication.

This year journalism was offered as an English course in which Mrs. Travis was able to experiment and develop a successful production system as the year progressed.

Eight members of the staff attended the Adam's-York County Newspaper Convention in November. At the event, sessions were held at which high school newspaper staffs learned about various aspects of the newspaper field from accomplished professionals.

Fawn Defies Tradition

Originality was truly the key word in the production of FAWN '78. The yearbook had a new advisor, Mr. Benjamin Emenheiser; a new publishing company; a new format complete with color opening and patron system; and a special slide show to introduce the sales campaign.

Each individual plunged into work with only a vague concept of the desired goal, the best and most complete K.D. yearbook ever. The green staff and advisor learned to make their abstract dream reality and to recognize their limits as they worked long hours to meet the dreaded DEADLINE. Some controversy was evoked in the battle against traditionalism, but a merry atmosphere was maintained throughout the year.

With the passing of the last deadline, the staff breathed a huge sign of relief, but felt a tiny pang of regret. In summary, FAWN '78 had a unique staff, who created a new and different kind of book.

Athletes Earn Membership

All varsity letter winners may join Varsity Club. This year, however, Mr. Gordon Sinclair, club advisor, is planning to devise a system whereby all members will have to work at various sports affairs in order to maintain their memberships. Varsity Club's primary purposes are to raise money for club jackets and to promote interest in sports activities.

Money making projects for 1977-78 included a donkey basketball game and candy sales during a basketball season. Members also helped the sports booster club at their concession stand at football games.

Destination: Wallop's Island

Students enrolled in Biology, II are members of Kennard-Dale's Biology Club. The organization's primary goal is to raise a sufficient amount of money to finance a field trip in the spring.

During the 1977-78 school year, the club held a ham and cheese sandwich sale. With Mr. Gordon Sinclair as their adviser, this group of budding young biologists traveled to Wallop's Island, Virginia and to Ocean City, Maryland on March 19 through 22.

On this trip, the students acquainted themselves with many different types of marine life.

Art Club Travels to D.C.

Art Club is a recently formed club whose members work independently. The main money-making project of the Art Club was a bake sale held in the library. Money earned from the bake sale combined with the monthly dues, financed the trip to Washington, D.C. in the spring where Art Club members toured the National Museum of Art and several other buildings of interest.

Freshmen Join Senior Chorus

For the first time in several years nine freshmen were included in the Senior Chorus. Schedule difficulties prevented the ninth graders from joining their own ninth grade chorus. With the help of these freshmen, the Senior Chorus, under the direction of Mr. Donald Gingrich, performed a Christmas and a spring concert.

Band Boosts

Crowd Spirit

The Kennard-Dale Marching Ram Band aided the cheerleaders in stimulating crowd spirit once again this football season.

Besides supporting their gridiron team from the stands, the band and colorguard performed field shows at games and parades. For the first time, Mr. Douglas Winemiller was in charge of both the band and front. Mr. Winemiller coached the 70 odd seventh through twelfth graders beginning with the two week summer band camp.

Weather seemed to be against the band. Stifling heat at the start of the season, brisk evenings and even rain made the marchers uncomfortable, but not unsupporting. Rain, the worst of all foes, nearly kept the band from marching at the homecoming game. Senior members were also disappointed when rain prevented the band from attending Spring Grove, their last football game.

"We Believe In Music"

Several Kennard-Dale students went beyond the confines of the school's basic music program during the 1977-78 school year.

Christina Gray and Kim Fleischmann (right) participated in District Band on January 19-21, 1978 at Southwestern High School. The girls also competed for Regional Band.

Sixteen members of Senior Chorus attended the annual Honors Choir at Elizabeth College on March 3 and 4, 1978. Three of the girls attended for the second year and two others participated for the third consecutive year.

Seniors of 1977 were awarded for outstanding musical leadership at the spring concerts. Sue Workman earned the John Phillip Sousa award for band. Dawn Rittle, Betty Houdeshel, and Eydie Waldron received Arion Awards for band, chorus, and orchestra, respectively.

ACTION

Girls' Track

The 1976-77 girls' track team had determination, but lacked the depth they needed for a winning season. With the help of Cathy Halsted, who went to Districts, those seventeen girls did their very best. Their 1 and 4 record does not show the individual triumphs that took place at the various meets. The girls' track team has lost no seniors, so they should come back stronger and better than ever.

Spring Track

The 1976-77 track team was coached by Bruce Christman and Dave Hartman. The Rams did not have a winning record, but the performances and achievements of the individual track candidates were impressive. The Butler brothers made names for themselves all over York county by breaking and setting many records in pole vaulting.

The Spirited Spikers

The Varsity Volleyball team's record didn't begin to show the effort they put into their games. These eleven girls kept their determination even in the closest moments. This year the team will have one returning letterman whose experience should lead the team into a good semester.

KD Strikes Again

The 1976-77 baseball team was assembled by coaches John Fulton and Sterling Ecker. Though the Rams suffered many defeats, they were victorious three times. Beating Susquehannock was one of their big wins that helped to build the pride of the team. Even though the record does not reveal a winning season, the team always stuck together and displayed their eagerness for competition when playing the tougher teams.

Field Hockey in Action

The 1977-78 Girls' Field Hockey team had a good season. Their offense improved from last year and they were also much more aggressive than they had been in previous years. The games that they did lose were mostly within one or two points. Although it is not evident in the four and ten record, this year's team showed the kind of optimism that every team should have in order to succeed.

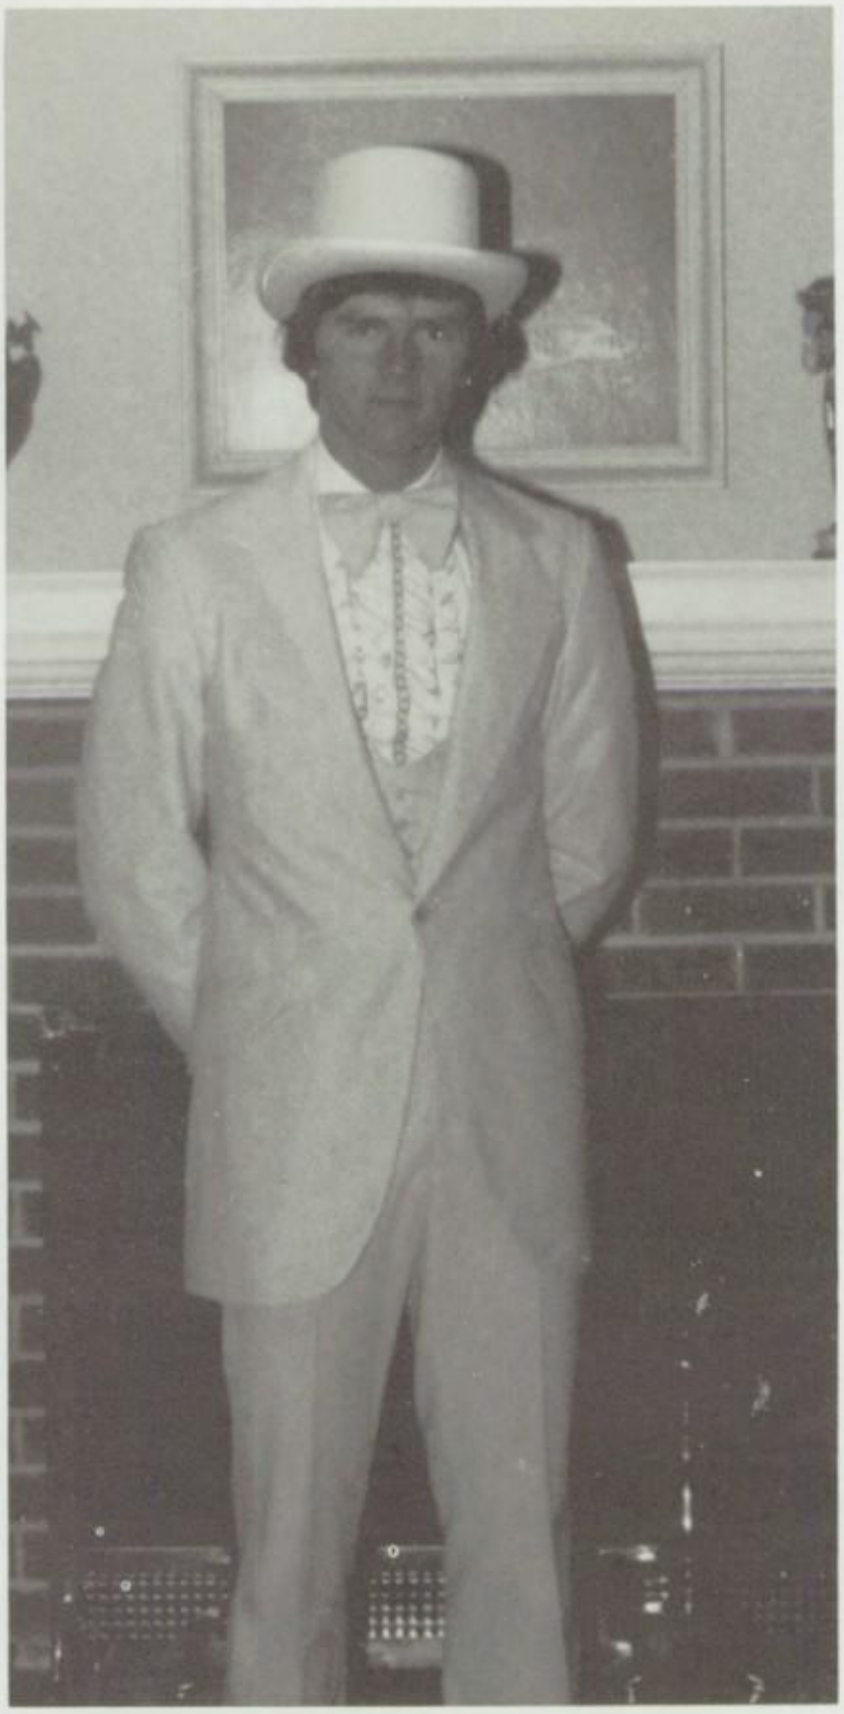
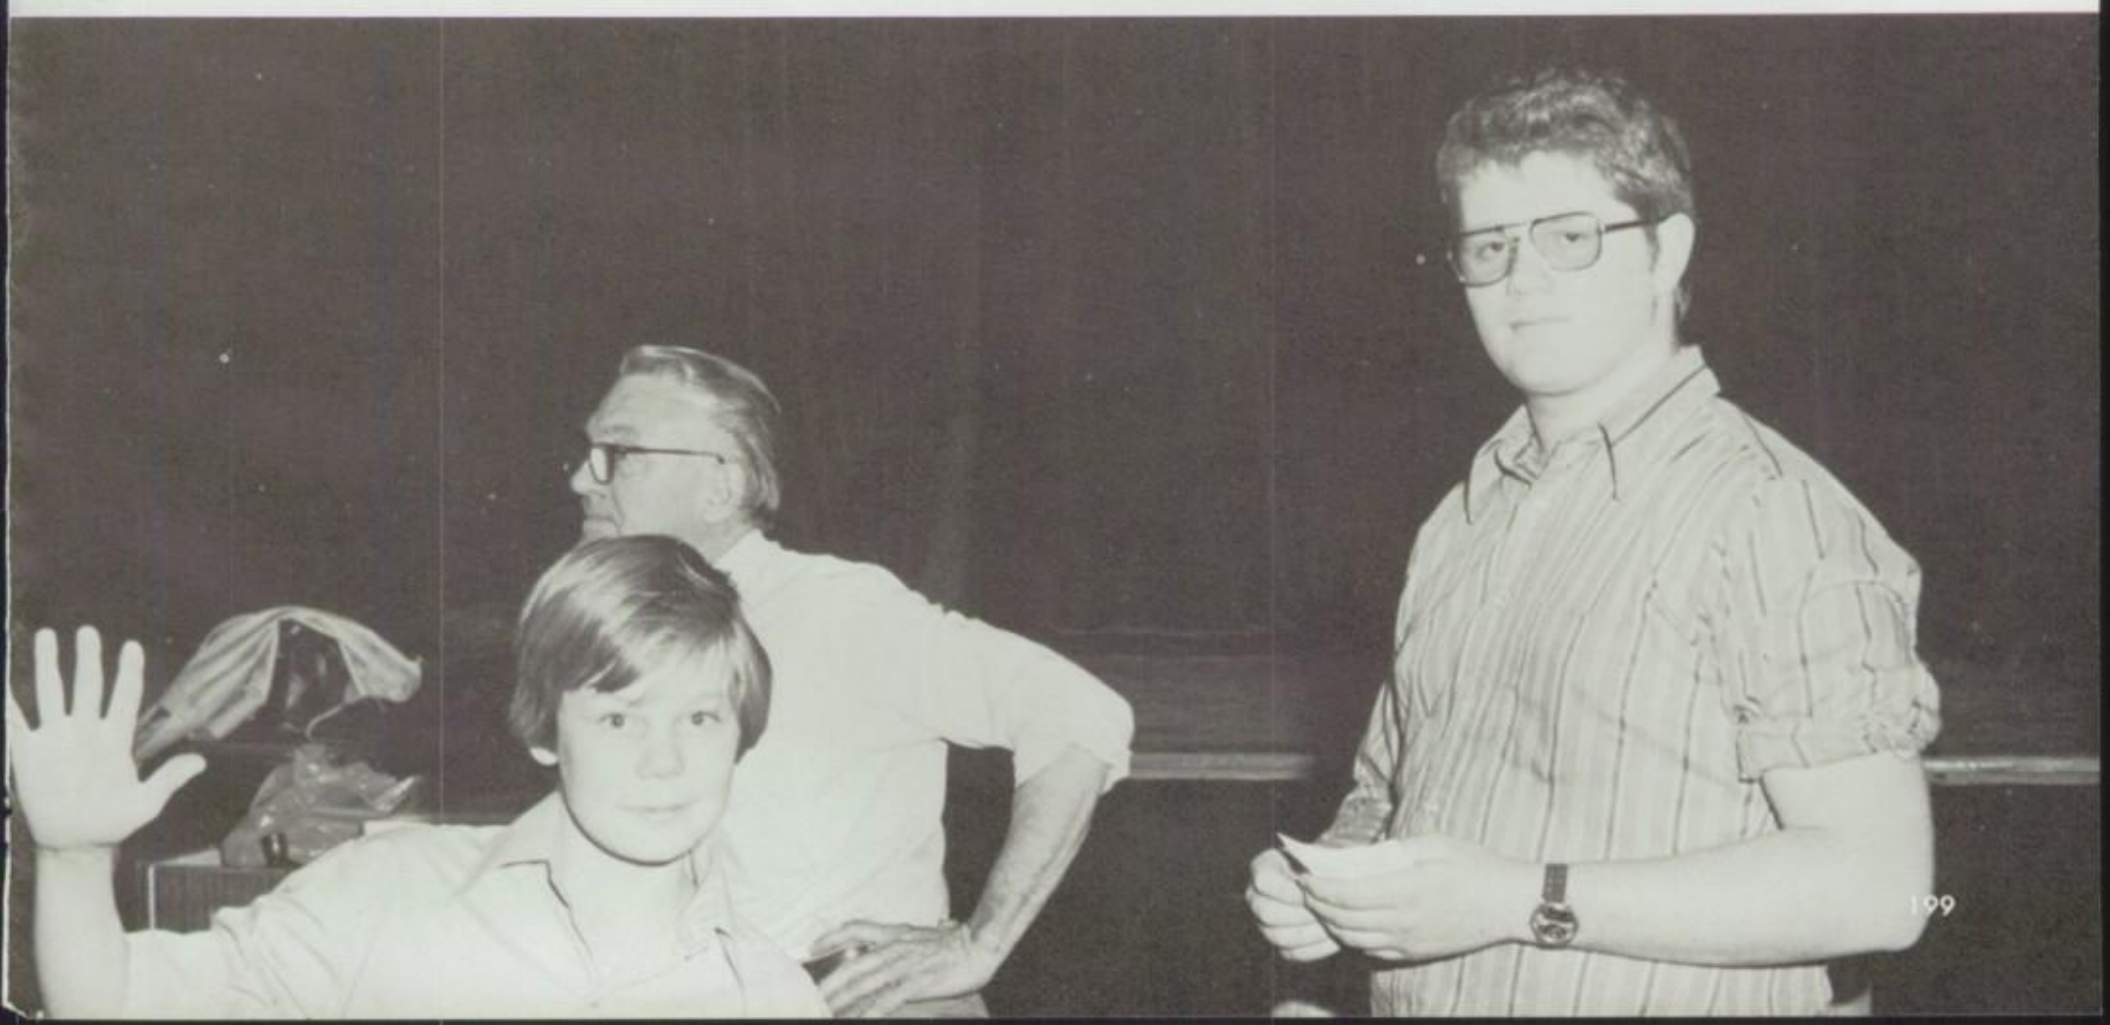
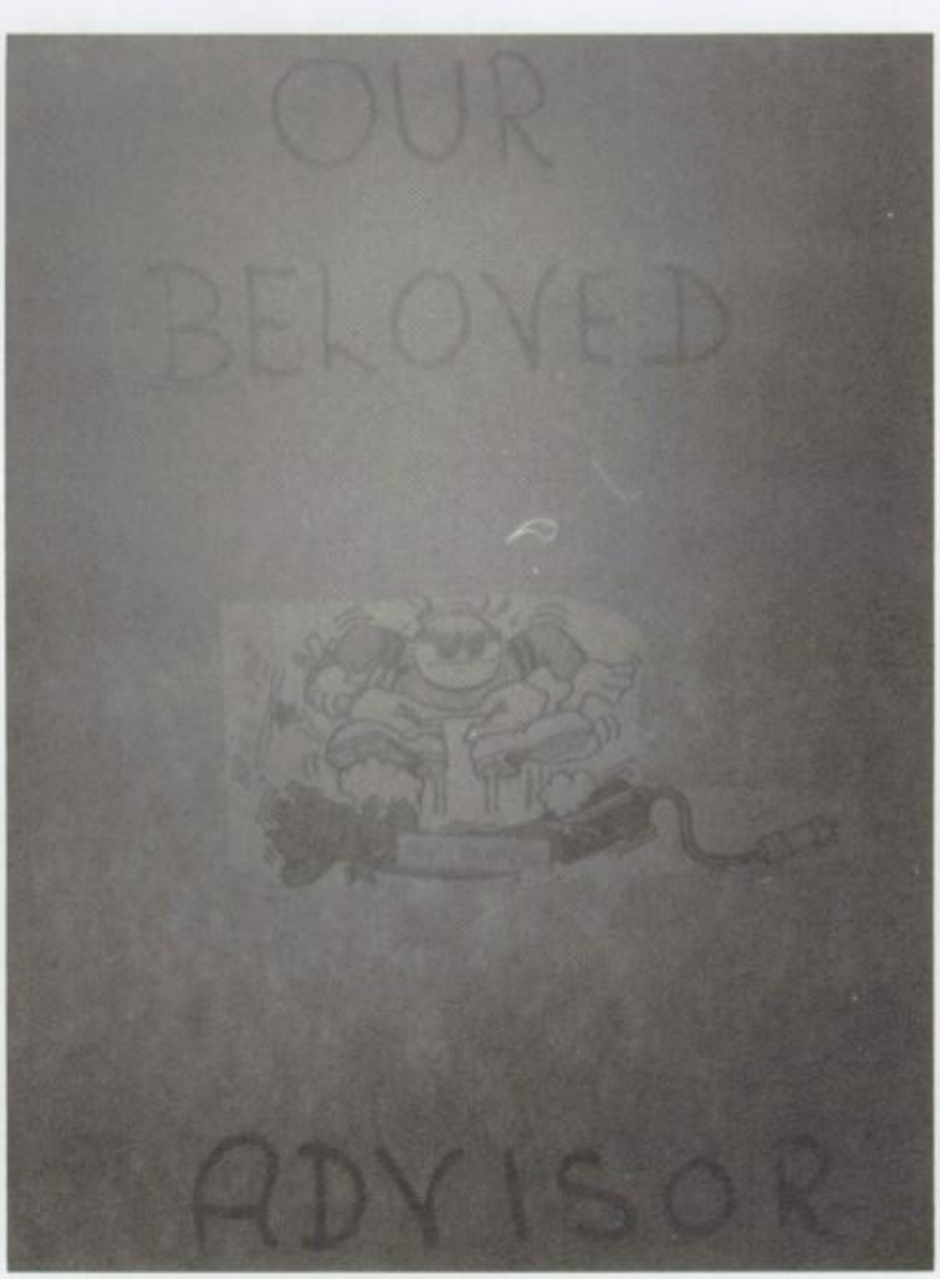
Evaluation of K.D. by the Middle States Association played a major role in our school this year. The teachers had prepared quite a while for this evaluation, which takes place every 10 years. The friendliness and warmth of our visiting committee was felt by all.





The 1978 Fawn staff would like to thank all those people who helped us in putting this yearbook together. Cooperation of the administration, student body and community is essential in projects such as this.

Special Thanks To:
Blatners for their photography, great patience, and cooperation.
Mrs. Darlene Kane for delivering pictures to us.
Mr. Barefoot for his generous artistic assistance.
John Davis for granting us permission to use the lyrics of "Life Is What You Make It" in our opening section.
Mr. Hunt for both presenting the FAWN Staff with a much needed camera and giving general support.
The faculty, especially Mr. Brant and Mr. Gallagher, for letting us out of class and helping us obtain needed information.
Mr. Wright for use of pictures.
Harry for his ceaseless flow of moonshine.


Most of all, our inexpressible thanks to our advisor, Mr. Emenheiser.
